Laura,

Lori Clezie will be the listing agent. She would like to come by this week or this weekend to look at the house. I will be with her. It should not take long.

Can you give me a few dates and times?

Thanks

Subject: Kids Sizes

John Clothes and Shoes

Shirt: L
Shorts And Pants: L or XL depending on brand. He is wearing Adidas, Nike and Cat and Jack from Target
Shoes: 8.5. ASICS and Brooks last. Nike shoes fall apart. Adidas shoes are ok but not as good as ASICS.

Target has other brands for John's age.

He likes athletic "outfits" that coordinate.

Noah Clothes and Shoes

Shirt: M Cat and Jack from Target
Shorts: M Cat and Jack from Target
Shoes: Size 2 Little Kid. Tsukioshi from Amazon and Zappos fit him well and survive his activities. He has a wide foot. Crocs and other flip flops he will likely be a 1.5.

Subject: John's practice tonight

Something to think about before tonight's practice. This is from the National Weather Service. Thought it would be helpful.

...HEAT INDEX VALUES FORECAST TO BE IN THE TRIPLE DIGITS THISAFTERNOON INTO THE EARLY EVENING... For the first time this year, widespread heat index values between 100 and 105 degree are expected across the forecast area. Please take caution to protect yourself and others from the impacts of the upcoming heat wave. If spending time outdoors, try to limit strenuous activities and wear loose-fitting, light-colored clothing. If working outdoors is necessary, stay hydrated, and take breaks in the shade as often as possible. Look before you lock, to avoid leaving pets or children in unattended vehicles. Anyone overcome by heat should be moved to a cool and shaded location.

The boys and I are going to Colorado to visit Chase. We are staying at Kimberly and Jason's in Durango. July 2nd-6th. Noah will miss school on the 6th. I will let everyone know.

We are flying direct into Albuquerque and renting a car and driving to Durango because of the complications of connecting flights and layovers.

Subject: Lori's notes for listing the house

Laura,

See below for Lori's list to get the house ready for sale. On item #3 I will need to come in and pack up my office. Let me know what works. The sooner the better.

Thanks

Suggestions for Property Staging:

1) house to be deep cleaned (recommended for every new listing)
2) declutter miscellaneous items on floors and countertops to storage areas and cabinets (e.g. front living rm). Keep kids toys in bedrooms.
3) front guest bedroom accessible for showings. If currently being used for an office may be staged that way, just decluttered if needed.
4) remove dead plants from pots on the rear patio and replace with new flowers if possible.
5) sweep patio & driveway areas; also set up patio cushions in place & wipe free of debris; blow off leaves/debris from rear yard turf
5) store garbage & recycling containers in garage if possible; keep garden hose rolled up and against house or inside garage.

* Would be great to have an open house on either Saturday or Sunday, June 25/26, from 2-4pm.

When is Lori listing the house? Off market or on the MLS?

Yesterday, it seemed she is not aware of the divorce order needed. And based on her wanting to have the open house in a week she is not aware.

The ferns will come down shortly- there are baby birds almost ready to leave.

Please leave the battery for the blower so I can keep the patio and driveway clean.

I will tidy the other areas.

The yard people just trimmed all of the bushes and come every two weeks for grass cutting.

No date set but she would like to do it as soon as possible. She is listing it on the MLS.

I am not sure what you mean by the divorce order.

The blower is gas powered. Brandon has an electric one and I think Clay might as well. Those would be much easier for you to use.

Our final order has to be filed before the house can be listed for sale off market or on the MLS. Hannibal and Paul had a telephone conference with Ms Leonard so she is a better person to get this information from.

I am aware of what the plan says. That was written in the event they get sick or injured and they need to go to the doctor. This appointment was made without my consent.

I will get clarification from my counsel. The Medical Appt Section does not specify “sick or injured”. It says “medical appointments”.

I think it's worth a phone meeting to see what that looks like.

I think Noah will need academic assistance of some sort. I think we need to work closely with his teachers to see how he is progressing with K curriculum and evaluate and re-evaluate. I think we should see how Amanda's suggestion fits in.
